

Kristin Schroeder-Simpson

June 17, 1974 - March 23, 2013

Kristin K. Schroeder Simpson, 38, of Keller, Texas, formerly of Kearney, died in Omaha on March 23, 2013. Memorial services will be Wednesday, March 27th, at 10:30 a.m. at the First United Methodist Church in Kearney. The Reverend Gary Main will officiate. Visitation with family will be Tuesday from 5:00-7:00 p.m. at the O'Brien Straatmann Redinger Funeral Home of Kearney. Burial of cremains will be held at a later date. Memorials are suggested to family for future designation. Online condolences may be submitted at www.osrfh.com. O'Brien Straatmann Redinger Funeral Home in Kearney is in charge of arrangements. She was born June 17, 1974 in Kearney to Kent and Linda (Wotherspoon) Schroeder. Kristin graduated from Kearney High School in 1992, received a BA in English from Texas Christian University in 1996 with distinction, and a juris doctorate from Southern Methodist University Law School in 2002 and was awarded the Order of the Coif. Following graduation from law school, Kristin was a law clerk for a federal bankruptcy judge, Judge Barbara Howser in Dallas, TX. She then worked for an international law firm, Weil, Gotshal & Manges. She moved back to Lincoln, NE where she was employed at the Rembolt-Luetke law firm, and then returned to Texas where she took a job as an associate professor at Baylor Law School, teaching Bankruptcy and Legal Writing. After leaving Baylor, she worked as a freelance law consultant specializing in bankruptcy. Survivors include her parents, Kent and Linda Schroeder of Kearney; grandmother, Alma Jean Wotherspoon, of Kearney; sisters Erin Brinegar and husband, Brandon of Kearney and Lindsey

Miller and husband, Ray of Omaha and their families; former husband, Cory Simpson and son Kason Simpson of Keller, TX; and daughter, Corrine Schroeder-Pouge and her father, Curtis Pouge of Bartonville, TX. She was preceded in death by grandparents, Al and Marge Schroeder and Allen Wotherspoon.
