“ I met Kyle through a mutual friend Vera he needed a person to clean his house for him! While cleaning one day he had to tell some of his jokes! He always for the most part had a smile on his face. He always had a story to tell, Kyle was never lonely even though he was alone! He had his music and TV but most important he had the Lord. R.I.P Kyle your friend Deb W.

“ Kyle was such a good-natured guy. A favorite phrase was "better looking than me".
He will be missed.
