“ Back in 1976 or '77, after Kirby and I got married, we ask if we could come to their farm and camp in my parents camper...of course LaRea and Wayne were so happy to have us, they showed us around the country there and had us in for meals....to heck with camping...we had a wonderful visit!! I will never forget how warm and loving and welcoming they were to us. They were the real deal...down to earth, common farm people with the biggest hearts I've ever known. I fell in love with a old, antique blue couch they had and they sent it with us!! There just are not people like that anymore. I'm so sorry and am praying for Wayne and all the family. Larry, your just like your parents...you come from the best there is! Love and prayers. Joyce Bond, Keim, Peterson

“ My husband Charles and I were so VERY blessed to finally meet this beautiful soul last summer. She and Wayne didn't hesitate to offer us dinner and then breakfast the next day...We made a phone call looking for any connection to my husband's long-lost family and at the other end of the line was a woman who was fiercely loyal to her duties as a mother, grandmother, and wife. I shudder at the loss her family is going through. Just know that she touched the lives of strangers with the loving kindness of one blessed by the lord.
