“ Scott and boys, Gary and I were so sadden to hear Laurie lost her battle to cancer. Laurie always had a smile and always ready to lend a helping hand. You were such good neighbors to Ruth in Miller. Sorry we were unable to be there in Eddyville. I had foot surgery. Please know that you are in our prayers. Hold on to the memories she gave you. God Bless you.

“ I met Laurie about a year and a half ago at chemo. She was always very upbeat about her situation and I always enjoyed talking with her. It made the time pass quickly. I'm very sadened at the loss of someone so vibrant. My thoughts and prayers are with you. Kathy Steinkruger, Franklin

“ There is a path deeply interfused along my heart where a memory of a little angel who ran over my foot with her jeep supplied comedy relief in the metal car- human foot...integration escapade. when I told her about it, she replied "Oh! Was that your foot Uncle Raymond?" I told her," it used to be", and she told me "that's good because a used to be foot can't hurt you." Laurie, girl, you were always weird, but you will always be my kind of weird. I have never really planned on going to heaven, but now I have no choice if I plan on seeing my little jeep wrangler angel again and I plan to see you again. All my love sweetheart, Uncle Raymond

“ My memories of Laurie are that she just had a love for life and it didn't matter where she was. She could find happiness and contentment in anything, even the cornfield. She took pride and joy in everything that I knew her to do. Her family has suffered a big loss and she will be missed..
