

Leonard E. DeBrie

March 29, 1934 - July 16, 2024

Leonard Eugene DeBrie passed away on July 16th, 2024. He was born to Milton and Gwendolyn DeBrie on March 29, 1934 in Gibbon, NE. His growing years were filled with basketball, football, baseball and track. After marrying his high school sweetheart, Suzanne Lindenstein, they headed to Ft. Collins, CO, where he attended Colorado State University for undergraduate studies and Veterinary school. He was offered a spot on the basketball team but decided to pitch for the baseball team. After playing for one year, he decided to put all of his effort into studying in order to compete for a spot at the Veterinary school. He became a Doctor of Veterinary Medicine in 1959 and was a member of the Phi Zeta honorary society.

Leonard and Suzanne had four children, Lauri, Karan, Brian and Gayle. It was his joy to teach them about life, to love animals, and to enjoy the simple things in life. He enjoyed family vacations, as well as 4-H, where he volunteered as the Buffalo County Fair Veterinarian for 50 years and received an award of distinction.

Dr. DeBrie joined Kearney Veterinary Clinic where had both a large and small animal practice. He left for his own large animal private practice, which eventually led to animal herd health, specializing in food animal consulting and nutrition for beef producers. He enjoyed his veterinary practice until he was 83. Leonard was a life-long learner and loved teaching cattle production.

Leonard was a member of the American Veterinary Medical Association, the Academy of Veterinary Consultants, and was a Charter member of the American Association of Bovine Practitioners. He raised purebred Angus cattle and Angus crossbreds. He was one of the first to use artificial insemination and continued to build his cow herd with his son Brian. He later adopted sustainable grazing practices. Talking cattle and farming was one of his favorite conversations.

Leonard enjoyed watching sports and an occasional hunting and fishing trip. He and Suzanne travelled across the country for baseball and football games, including a World Series and bowl games.

Leonard attended the First Presbyterian Church in Kearney, where he was a deacon and an usher. His spiritual mentor was David Jeremiah and he was continually blessed by his sermons. His family was blessed to have him as their spiritual leader.
