“ Ed, Bob and all the grandkids and great grandkids, my heart goes out to you. There is no doubt where this God fearing woman is now. But that doesn't make it any easier for those who await their day of salvation. You all are in my prayers. May God grant you peace of heart and mind knowing that she is with Sherm and Kim in the room God prepared for her. What a glorious day it will be when we get to see her again.

“ Aunt Linda was a kind soul, who meant the world to our family. Her kindness and joy were such a tremendous part of who she was and this was infectious for the entire family. Her smile when Uncle Sherman would tease you made you wonder if she was in on the teasing as much as he was. She as a ray of sunshine in our lives and will be dearly missed.
