She was raised on the family farm North of Elm Creek and graduated from Elm Creek High School with the class of 1951.

She was united in marriage to Marvion Reichert on February 10, 1952 at the Elm Creek Christian church. Lois stayed busy as a mother and farm wife, working alongside her husband and raising her family. Lois was an excellent cook, and made many meals for family, friends and help. Her German, Kraut Berouks (runzas) and bread were loved by all. She loved gardening, canning, and selling her pickling cucumbers at the Farmers Market in Kearney. Although not a gambler, she also loved playing the nickel slots. She was also proud to work on the Election Board in Elm Creek for many years and was a member of the Holy Cross Lutheran Church in Kearney. “ Junior, Jerry, Debra, and Tina: I am hurting and happy for you at the same time. This video compilation that you put together of your Mama made me cry happy tears. Of the wonderful pictures, the older black-and-white ones are the best. After those, the second-best is the one is of Marvion Senior in the cowboy hat with Lois. The third best one is of you four kids when Junior had side-burns (circa 1974, I suppose). It don't get no better than these pictures and the music that you chose for the memories. I regret that I did not go to Lois's funeral. Prayers and blessings to your Reichert family from our Sytsma family at this time, especially from my Mom Carolyn, brother Kent, sister Judy, brother-in-law Craig and me. -- Lennis Sytsma
