“ Lori was more than a friend. She was family. She took us under her wing when we first met. She had the biggest heart. She took care of anyone that needed help. We had more laughs and good times. Rest in peace Lori cause god has a beautiful angel.

“ Lori lived next door to my parents for many years and was a very good neighbor to them. Because they were elderly, it was reassuring knowing they had Lori next door. I have also been friends with her brother, Brad, since kindergarten. My deepest sympathy goes out to Brad and the rest of the family.
