“ I am very sorry to hear of Mae's passing. I loved Mae...I will always remember how she tried to be "cranky", but at the end of what she had to say, she would always break out into a smile. She loved Bingo and as the activity director at St John's through the end of March, I always appreciated that she was willing to come to just about any activity, as long as she was feeling pretty good that particular day. She had a good long life and I know she is face to face with Jesus. She will be missed.
