

Mandy K. Sulzle

January 5, 1978 - September 18, 2025

Mandy K. Sulzle (Yendra) was born January 5, 1978. Mandy valiantly fought cancer for 12 years before her passing On Thursday September 18, 2025 where she was surrounded by her family entering into the kingdom of Heaven.

Mandy was a beautiful, creative, woman who loved her family, church, and books. She loved living life to the fullest as a free spirited individual, often throwing caution to the wind, daring life to slow her down. This carefree ambition has provided memories for all those in her life.

Mandy cared deeply for her family. This was the source of light and determination as she progressed thru her condition. This was always on display at gatherings, trips, and at home. She defied belief as she willed herself to make the most of these times and provide memories for all to cherish.

Mandy is survived by her husband Jeffrey Sulzle, four children Jacob Willard, Carson Glenn, Maleah Yendra, and Jaxon Sulzle. Siblings Jack (Adele) Gomez, Robby (Jennifer) Yendra, Twin sister Misty (Chris) Elliot, Tracie (Justin) Ferguson, many nephews and nieces and other extended family.

She is preceded in her death by father, Robert Yendra and mother, Patricia Isaacs (Yendra).

A celebration of life will be held Friday October 10th, 202 at 11:00am at 11150 Stagecoach RD, Hickman NE 68372. Cards and memorials can be to the family in care of Robby Yendra to the above address.

“ Mandy you were by Recovery sister. We had some fun trips together. Playing cards at your sisters house. Thank you for letting me be apart of your wedding. We supported each other. You made me laugh and you were the best co worker. We even dated the same guy lol.
Even though your journey was rough. You were always happy and in good spirits. I love and miss you my friend. I will cherish every memory ❤️🦋
