“ I always have fond memories of Marty, from the days of my dad talking about what a nice man he was and working with him for sooo many years at West Company, to just being blessed to know him and Sharon through his wonderful kids who we were blessed to work with, go to school with and be friends with. He raised a beautiful family and is celebrating in Heaven right now, no doubt!

“Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved, a worker who does not need to be ashamed and correctly handles the word of truth.” 2 Tim 2:15 We can know beyond the shadow of any doubt that Martin was able to present himself to God as a “worker approved”. None of us can possibly know how many lives he touched, how many people he led to know Christ as their personal savior, how many new lives in Christ he helped to nurture and mentor – but God knows! We can know that he did not just “tell” people about Christ – he showed them through his own life! The many ways he so sincerely and consistently demonstrated/modeled God’s love and grace toward others said far more than mere words could ever say. We can know that Martin has heard these words, “Well done, my good and faithful servant.” Matt 25: 21, 23.
