“ I tried to go to the burial but I didn't ask the right persons for directions to the cemetery. They sent me to the one closer to Milford. I went to the mortuary and learned about the one further south too late. Sorry I missed you. My sympathy. I would like to know where to send a memorial. -Cliff (Seward, NE)

“ My sincere sympathy to Marvy's dear family! She was a blessing to all who knew her and I am thankful she crossed my path of life. She loved all of you so dearly and being a 'part' of your family reunion I saw the respect and love for her in return. I have been on jury duty this week in Broken Bow and was hoping I wouldn't be selected so I could have attended her service but it didn't go that way. My love and prayers for you as your family has changed as you once knew it to be. May our Jesus wrap his arms around you and comfort as only He can. It is such a great picture of your mother that is here on her obituary. Thanks for the memories, Marvy!

“ I was saddened to see in the paper just this morning that Marvelin has passed away. I met her years ago through Sunrise Bible Studies and was blessed to see her at various events around town through the years. Marvelin was such a wonderful person with a beautiful spirit. My deepest sympathy to the family for this loss, and my utmost rejoicing with Marvelin as she worships her Savior face to face. Warmly, Bonnie Payne

“ Dear Karen, Ken and all your family, We are grieving with you in the loss of this very special lady. Although she was very ready to go "Home," there is still such a sad emptiness in the loss your mother. Thankfully her children have been there together with her these last days, and we know you had many treasured moments. You are in our hearts and prayers as you go through these difficult days. We love you, Dick & Sharon

“ Grandma was a special person who showed only love and support of all her friends and family. We feel so blessed to be a part of her world. I will always cherish the look on her face when we last visited, she was so pleased to have Alex sing the Irish blessing for her. These memories warm our hearts and ease the pain of loss some.

“ My deepest sympathy to all of the Fowler families. God needed another angel in heaven, so he called Marvelin home. Karen, I am so sorry to hear of Marvelin's passing. I never had the opportunity to meet her, but believe that she had to be a great lady to raise a wonderful daughter like you. Kev and I are thinking of and praying for all of you in this difficult time. Please remember this "Death leaves a heartache that no-one can heal, but LOVE leaves a memory that no-one can steal." Love Carol and Kev
