Interment will be at Kearney Cemetery. Memorials are suggested to the family for future designation. Online condolences may be submitted at www.osafh.com. Funeral Services entrusted to O'Brien-Straatmann Funeral Home of Kearney. She was born February 25, 1920 in Darr, NE to Roy Henry and Eva Mary (Hennek) Sternberg. The family later moved to Elm Creek. Maxine attended school in Elm Creek, graduating from Elm Creek High School in 1938. Maxine married Frank Moles on October 2, 1939. The couple started their life together in Norfolk and over the years lived in Redondo Beach, WA, Elm Creek, Norfolk, Beatrice, Yakima, WA and Auburn, WA. They retired to Kearney in 1984. She was a member of St. James Catholic Church. Frank Moles passed away on January 17, 2006. Maxine subsequently moved to Village at Skyline in Colorado Springs to be near her children, but her heart was always with St. James, the Catholic Daughters of America and her family and friends in Nebraska. Maxine was a great wife and mother. She loved the company of her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She enjoyed sewing, knitting, crocheting and craft projects. The kids could always look forward to one of Grandma's projects at Christmas. Survivors include her sons, Robert and wife Nell of Sedalia, CO and Richard and wife Maria of Tyler, TX; daughter, Connie and husband Glenn Hagerman of Littleton, CO; eleven grandchildren and twelve great-grandchildren. Her parents, husband, brother, two sisters and two grandchildren preceded her in death.
