“ Ron, I can't put into words or what to say that would make things better. My heart goes out to you, and your family. If you need anything Ron, someone to talk to, or whatever I'll be there. You may have lost a loving daughter, but you haven't lost the memories. Be thankful for the time that you did had have with her, and to cherish those moments. God has made a room for her, and one day you will see your liitle girl again. Were only here on this earth for a very short time, and then we will have eternity. I am praying for you ron and your family. I know saying I am sorry isn't probably enough, but I am truely sorry. I know with Jacob's problems and my cancer, I can honestly say that I do alot of crying, BUT I feel God's hand on my shoulder.
