“ *Mildred's Dear Family,
We are so saddened by Mildred's death but know that she has now met Jesus! She loved each one of you so dearly and recognized that you were all special gifts in her life.*

We have numerous sweet memories of she and Uncle Mervin-they always made the effort to connect with us through the years in so many ways. Mildred was kind, interested and inclusive to all she met, on a multitude of levels, in her busy and productive life.

Our love and prayers are with you all, as you say good-by to a very special person in your lives. May The Lord shower you with His love, mercy and grace at this time.

“ Dear Mildred will be missed. She & Bernie welcomed my husband Lynn & me to First Lutheran when I began to serve there as Transition Pastor four years ago.
On the first Sunday we compared our love of shoes! She always dressed so beautifully. But more than that, she was beautiful in her way of sharing her love of Christ & joy in life in so many ways.
Peace to her memory, Sylvia High Karlsson
