“ She was my first Sunday School teacher, and the grandma of some of my dearest childhood friends. Praying for comfort as you remember her life and celebrate her eternity with Jesus. She loved Him wholeheartedly and I know there’s rejoicing in heaven to have her home! Even with the sorrow of goodbye here. I’m sending all my love to the whole Gerdes family!

Nancy was one of the first people we met, as she welcomed us to town and to our “new home“ in 1988. She and Lloyd walked, often, past our house. She came with a warm smile, loving kindness, and a plate of delicious cookies! She also introduced us to her dear daughter, Jane, and Terry, whose family became precious friends to us. Nancy loved Jesus.... We grieve her loss, but are rejoicing that He has welcomed her into her unfathomable, “new forever home”. “However, as it is written: “What no eye has seen, what no ear has heard, and what no human mind has conceived”— the things God has prepared for those who love him—”
