“ Pat was a special person to us while we were in Kearney. The entire Journey family showed their faith, a love of God in our ministry there. I will always respect and care for you all. Please know you are in our thoughts and prayers. Pat is at peace, with the others she loved and held dear who preceded her into his kingdom.. May your family find peace in knowing she is now without burden of any kind. God Bless You All My Friends!

“ So sorry to hear about Patty. I have good memories of her (in her 20's) when the kids were young. Dad (Bob) and the brothers used to go to her place and play cards. I was a teenager back then and she was my favorite aunt..
