“ On the 23rd of Dec we were blessed to spend time with Paul at grandsons birthday party. My husband, Nici's Dad set and visited with Paul probably 3 hours he talked about how proud he was of Lloyd and new he would teach Kaeson to grow up to be a good man because he always thought his grandson Lloyd was a hardworking and trustworthy person and always had been. We were on our way home that evening and he said to me I laughed so hard this afternoon Jolene came to tell Paul it was time to eat and wanted to know if he wanted her to get his plate, he said no I'll get and she turned and said ok your free white and 21, and turned to Rick and said I don't know where she heard that but I think that is so cute when she says that, and they both laughed. Really sweet memory of the kind man that was. To Jolene and the family may god put his hands around you and make this journey a little easier for you to travel. Rick and Debbie Riley

“ *My favorite memory was when I was about 7 years old and sitting down to dinner at the long table at Grandma and Grandpa Hills house. I had fallen in the irrigation ditch with Grandma Bessie most unhappy with me. I was upset but Paul just looked at me smiled and gave me a wink to let me know it was all ok. “ While Paul was walking past a shoe store in Kearney, Ne in 1974, the Lord told Paul to go into that store and tell the man there of his (Paul's) being filled with the Holy Spirit in his haymow. Paul tried to 'walk on by' but the Lord told him to 'go on in there' because the man in there was going to 'plant a church in west Kearney, one day'. Paul was obedient and he and that man (me) spent an hour and a half together while Paul shared what the Spirit of God had impressed him to share relative to a life of being filled with (and led by) the Spirit of God. At the time, my wife and I were part of a very small mid-week bible study (members of a Kearney Lutheran church) and had absolutely no idea of any such future. Fast forward: Ten years later my wife and I DID build/plant a church in west Kearney. It is now Grace Fellowship Church. Paul and Jolene only shared this story with me about 2008. Before that, I had no idea of his encounter with me and his obedience to the leading of the Lord. Paul was one of my dearest, most trusted friends and I am very comforted to know that he is now at home with our Lord (The same Lord whose Spirit had convinced Paul to stop and tell me about 'things of God' that absolutely and remarkably changed my life and the life of my wife.)
