“ To all the Bamford family I loved Peachie like a sister she was so special to me and my life will never be the same. We went through a lot together and she was a very classy lady and someone I could always count on. I loved her and my thought and prays are with the family everyday and there is not a day that goes by I do not think and miss her.

“ Dear cousins, I am sorry that I could not be with you but have been doing a lot of remembering. When we were all kids growing up in Kearney Aunt Peachie was right in the middle of all things fun & not so fun. She was the one who hugged me while I cried when my Grandmother in Holdrege died. I have many fond memories of her and of, course, all of you. My love and my heart are with you. Susan Theckla Johnston Counsell
