“ Dear Linda and Family. I was so sad to read of Becky's death....I don't know how to reach you , so was glad for this opportunity. I trust that she is in heaven in the loving arms of our precious Lord. I will not be at the service tomorrow, as my husband has been diagnosed with a skin cancer that is aggressive and So, we are on our way to Omaha today for an appoint tomorrow. Please know that it was my honor to know Becky as a little girl and if you get back to me, I would love to have a visit one of these days. May God give you all strength during this difficult time. Love, Jo Nachtigal

“ 'A butterfly lights beside us like a sunbeam And for a brief moment its glory and beauty belong to our world But then it flies again And though we wish it could have stayed... We feel lucky to have seen it.'... Rest in Peace Sweet Becky Please tell us more about Becky... We would love to listen... Although I didn't get to spend a lot of time with her, she was always a sweetheart to me and I, too remember her sweet smile. We (her Uncle Ralph Thomas and our daughters, Amanda and Erica, her cousins), will miss her immensley. We love you....Sweet Becky

“ I will miss hearing Becky say "love you too Uncle" at the end of our weekly telephone conversations. She was only in our lives for a short 10 years but in our hearts for her entire 24. Becky was the child of my twin brother who most certainly welcomed her into the kingdom of heaven with him. May they walk in peace and love for eternity, hand in hand in the love of God. Rest in peace my sweet niece, rest in peace.
