“ Renee had a huge heart. She loved her family, young and old, with all her heart. She never forgot a single birthday of any family member and took pride in always knowing and wishing each person a "Happy Birthday" when it was their special day. Renee never had complaints about life. She was always happy to see family and be with others. I think she lived her life quite happy and content even when life wasn't easy for her. She will be missed, and I know she is now overjoyed to see dad again in heaven.

“ Renee had such a beautiful spirit! She was liked by everyone she met and people sought her company because she made everybody feel comfortable. We went several times to sing karaoke as she loved to do. I believe I met her (cousin) who works at the fireman's museum in Kearney the day we went on a shopping trip there. I am saddened she is gone! So soon. May God bless and keep her!
