The son of Edwin Paul Garrelts and the grandson of Orville Walter and Laura Strong, Richard was born on August 15, 1952 and grew up in the Kearney area. Richard enlisted in the army in 1972. The following year, while stationed in Giessen, Germany, the sister of an army friend prepared to visit, requesting that her brother find her a date for New Year's Eve. Mimi first heard Richard on one of the many audio letters sent by her brother and immediately fell in love with his voice. The two began to write letters, and she fell further in love with his wit and prose. They met for the first time in December 1973 at the Frankfurt airport and later had a first date at Dachau (yes, really) and the Munich Hofbrauhaus. They married in 1975, and made a life for themselves in Lytle, Texas, where Richard worked as a finish carpenter and where they had two children. In the mid 1980s, at the behest of his grandparents, Richard returned to Nebraska to run their farm. Richard was also a rural carrier for the United States Postal Service for almost 25 years and was especially known for acts of kindness both large and small and the care he showed his elderly customers. Richard was a beloved husband and father and will be forever missed and thought of.

He is survived by his wife, Mary "Mimi" Garrelts; son, Richard Paul "Rick" Garrelts, Jr. and his wife, Alyssa, and children, Richard III, Rena, and Ruthanne of Westfield, Indiana; and daughter, Jodi Lea Garrelts of Lincoln, Nebraska. He is also survived by many close friends who meant everything to him.

“ We are so sorry to hear about the loss of Dick. What a good man! We lived north of Amherst for many years on the farm/ranch where we raised our 4 children. Our children went to school with the Garrelts children, and Dick was our mail carrier. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you. Dave and Maris Bentley and family

“ What a special friend Dick was. We worked together for many years at the Amherst Post Office and he was our Amherst-Riverdale rural carrier for many years. We shared working space at the post office and his wit kept us going most days. His humor will be remembered by the Wicks. We always kidded him about skidding the corner and sliding into our mailbox. He never knew what he would find when he opened the box. My son Chuck was known for putting cats, etc. in there. We know how he fought that first round of cancer and we all wanted it to be successful and not return. But cancer has a way of coming back and he knew how our family had to deal with it. I truly loved his grandpa and grandma Walters whose basement apartment I rented for 4 years. They were special guests at our wedding 60 years ago. They took this country girl into their home and treated me so well. It was how I got to know the whole family. What a blessing to be able to work with Dick and learn that he was Louise and PomPom's grandson. He will be missed by the old Amherst office and carriers even though he has been retired for some years. He was so proud of his kids and their achievements. He loved his wife and was thankful for her keeping the place running while he was at work.
