“ To Patty and family: I wanted to let you know I was thinking of you. I was remembering all the fun golf games we had and coming to visit you. It seems like so long ago but not really. About a week ago I thought about you both and thought of calling. But didn't do it. I was shocked to see Rich's picture in the paper. From now on I plan to pay closer attention to some of the thoughts that come to mind, they truly are special messages. Thoughts and prayers go to you and your family.

Your friend always, Sharon Adams

“ Dear Pat and family,

We are sad not to be with you for the celebration of Richard's life. As you know, he was a remarkable man, husband, father, brother, lawyer and a servant of God. So many accomplishments in one life. He was a seriously wonderful lawyer and public servant. His work as a deacon demonstrated his dedication to the Lord's work. But I'm sure Richard would agree his greatest legacy will be the wonderful family that you and he created together. We will miss him. May God bless you all and bring you peace.

“ Patty. Rita & I are so very saddened to see this obituary of our very dear friend, Dick. I will never forget my extremely pleasant painting partner in 1961 asking me if I might have an extra $10 he might borrow so he could purchase some bread & milk for you & the kids until we could get paid for the house that he & I were painting that summer.

We were partners indulging in the house painting business in Omaha awaiting our last year of law school.

He was a wonderful partner as I know he was as husband, father & certainly as a lawyer.

He was my outstate good friend who I will miss Patty. God bless you! Dan Dolan.

“ i was in the same small graduating class of 1962 with Rich, suffering the same trauma as he dd during the 3 years at Creighton Law. The freshmen year had over 120 students and the graduating class was about 33 total. Richard had incredible talents and was admired by all. He leaves big footprints.

“Pat and family: I was sorry to hear of Dick’s passing. He was a great friend for fifty some years, and a partner in the practice of law for fourteen years. I remember competing with Dick on the basketball court from the time I was fourteen to the time he graduated in 1956, and becoming acquainted when we joined in the firm of Mueting & DeLay in 1973. He was an excellent attorney with an exemplary ethical and moral standard. He was respected by his clients, peers and the judiciary. He liked the corporate, estate, and tax side of the law and devoted most of his practice to those fields of law. He could try a case, “as we put it,“ he knew where to put his feet in a courtroom. He was a joy to have around with a ready smile and helping hand.

During the partnership we crossed a number of bridges. I remember when we opened our office in the Bestt building we had room in our library for a rest area and bar. Such big shots to be able to relax and have a drink after a hard day. The problem was we did not know how to limit the drink, the result was, we removed the bar and quit drinking! That gave us some extra time, Dick turned to religion, and I bought an organ. Dick was ordained a Deacon in the church, and I had two recitals. Our practice grew. We bought a building on Taylor and 13th street, and included associates and partners in our practice. Joel Carlson was our first associate . . . a wonderful fellow. He left our practice to join the County Attorney. Dick Spittler joined the firm as a partner. Although Spittler was a good Christian, he wasn’t as demonstrative as Mueting. When Mueting started playing Christian music in his office (next to Spittler’s) Spittler would raise his eyebrows. When Mueting started pasting the picture of Jesus on his files, Spittler started muttering, and when Mueting started burning incense in his office, Spittler decided to open his own office! We all had a good laugh about it. Ross Stoffer joined the office as an associate, and later as a partner. He was and is an excellent attorney and now Judge. I left the office in 1987 to join my father in the banking business. I missed my day to day contact with Dick. He was a mentor to me, a loyal supporter, and a partner in life. Dick made a difference in my life, and in this world.

Dick Mueting was among the Norfolk lawyers who made me feel welcome when I moved town in 1974.

Dick referred a case to me my first week in solo practice after leaving the law firm I originally joined. The referral made my cash flow for the first couple months; I was, and am, grateful.

I remember trying the case with Dick. I asserted an objection to testimony from an adverse witness early. The Judge sustained the objection. The result was that the other side requested a recess, and trial never resumed. Dick and I celebrated with a Dairy Queen cone as I recall!

That day, and dozens of times thereafter, Dick would smile and say "Got any good objections in your pocket today?"

When I left Norfolk in 1989 I hoped Dick Mueting would always consider me a friend. I did him.

Dick was a good person. Best wishes to his family.

To Pat and family: So sorry to hear of Dicks passing. He was a great man and attorney. I started working for Dick, Tom Delay and Ross Stoffer after my divorce and worked for them as office manager and thoroughly enjoyed my time at the law office.

Enjoyed knowing all the family and had stopped several times to visit with you Pat and Dick while visiting in Kearney.

Hope you are doing well Pat and will stop and see you when in Kearney. Prayers for all of you!

Upon graduation from law school I was fortunate to be mentored by Dick Mueting and Tom DeLay. When I started with them, Dick's mother Mary was our office manager. She was a wonderful person and Dick and his siblings inherited many of her attributes. After I had proven my competency, I was entrusted with family legal matters such as being a Career Day presenter for Paul's class. Over the years Dick and I had many conversations not only about the law, but also about family and faith. I came away from many of those conversations with insights that I still use and carry today. Dick certainly planted many seeds during his day, watered them along with watering seeds that had been planted by others, and is no doubt now able to see the bountiful harvest that he has had a hand in. One need look no further than to his "senior citizen" children for examples of his influence. My wife Maggie and I express our condolences to Dick's family and thank you for sharing him and yourselves with us.
