Rob went on to attend the University of Nebraska-Lincoln where he was a member of the Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity and played football for the Cornhuskers from 1981-1984 where he was part of two Orange Bowl teams.

“ No words can express the sadness that all of us who knew Rob are feeling My thoughts and love go out all his family and friends. Rob will always be Robbie to me, the pain in our backside little brother of Angel. I didn't have a little brother so I always loved watching how he and Angel would fight but always had each others backs when I got to stay over at their home. So many of my memories of my childhood have Robbie like a thread that is woven into those moments . Faculty parties where the kids ran around sneaking snacks, sleepovers, riding Red the pony who hated me (Robbie trying to get that cinch tight on that dang pony...I had a scar for years from that day riding on the railroad tracks), singing with Robbie my senior prom theme & at Cheryl & Jay's wedding (his amazing voice saved the duets every time) and his laughter. So many little moments over the years , from toddlers to adulthood, it's hard to separate them.
