“ It's interesting when you are drawn to an obituary simply by the person's picture. Not knowing Bob, there was still something for me to read about his life here on earth. I found it in his children, John I used to work with you at Hinky Dinky in Holdrege when you ran the meat department. To this day I still fondly remember the sign I made for you where I misspelled Meat "Shoppe" to Meat "Shoppoppe" or something along those line.

I just wanted to reach out and wish the best for you, Valerie and your family now and in the days ahead. It's wonderful that you were able to have your Dad here for so many years of your lives. Take care and stay safe.
