“ Roger loved everyone and everyone loved him. His love for family and friends warmed my heart but his love for his God, Jehovah I will always cherish. Rogers simple approach to life and faith set all of us a shining example of how all people should live. He cried with people who cried, laughed when things were funny, and hugged and expressed his love for you without reservation. Roger was my not only my cousin and friend he was a very dear soul that will be missed. I so look forward to seeing and enjoying his company in paradise. Christian love, Elna Krueger
