“ *I am so sorry for your loss, Delsia and all. I will be praying for strength for all of you in the rough days ahead. I have so many fond memories of our neighbors that make me smile. We shared a lot 'over the back fence'. A few years ago I saw Ron's name on the schedule at an office where I worked. I was a little apprehensive of his reaction when he saw me, as we hadn't seen each other for years. No worries...he came around the desk to give me a hug. That's Ron! Keep the happy memories alive by remembering Ron and he will remain, forever, in your hearts. Please accept my sympathy,

“ My heart is saddened to hear the loss of Ron. He truly was a beautiful person with that contagious smile and dynamic personality. It didn't matter how many years had gone by from seeing him he always greeted me with that big hug and smile and memories of the good times we shared as families . Thinking of you all in this sad time may his legacy of great memories comfort you . Love and hugs to you all. Linda Catlin( Starmer) Johnson. Omaha, Ne
