“ I am so heart-heavy this morning. I don't get the local paper and when I went to the bank, I asked about how Sasha was doing. That's how I found out she lost her struggle, and had passed. I always asked about Sasha if she wasn't working, and if she was there we talked about her progress. I recently told her myself that every time I even drive by the bank I think of her and such struggles she's had to face. It saddens me; she was such a vibrant, positive young woman. She was always so helpful and kind. Sasha was definitely a public servant. I know I will feel the emptiness whenever I go to the bank now. My condolences to her family, friends, and loved ones. Heaven has a brighter star!

Thoughts and prayers to Shane and family. I only met Sasha a couple of times but that was enough to know what a great person she was. A great friend to my daughter Tracey. The Good Lord knew what he was doing when he chose Sasha to be by his side. He only chooses only the best.
