PS

“ I have known Scott for almost 25 years, he was and still is the best. His heart was the best because he loved his family and friend with all his heart. I was married to his brother for couple years. He always told me if I need him even after the car accident that claim his life, Scott was great to be around and even shoulder or two. You will be missed but will never forgetten all the love you show me and my family. I sure love you my brother in law. Now just rest until we met again. We can talk for hours after get there to be you and your brother.
