“ We had the pleasure of getting to know Scott when our son was going through some dark times and Scott did everything he could to help him and us, what a remarkable man! Will miss our appointments and the encouragement he always gave. Prayers for you, his family for we know how much he loved all of you, he always shared stories about you! Thank you for sharing him with us he left a impact on our lives.

“ Scott was a wonderful and caring person. He has touched my life and heart in so many ways. He taught me so many things. From learning about how to deal with my problems to realizing that I am a unique person. He was always smiling and eager to see what he could do to help. I never walked out of his Dr office upset. You could tell that he loved to help. I will miss him a great deal. From the years that he helped me I can't imagine how you are feeling. I send my love, best wishes, and I am truly sorry for you lose.

“ Psalm 34:18

"The LORD is close to the brokenhearted; he rescues those whose spirits are crushed."

Deepest sympathy to Scott's family and dear friends; praying for the strength and comfort that can only come from God during this very difficult time. Although no words can really help to ease the loss you bear, please know you are being prayed for.

“ I was a classmate of Scott's from elementary to high school. My strongest memory (among many) is playing YMCA basketball with him, his brother Justin, and their father/our coach Jerry. Not actual games, but just practicing at the Hawthorne School gym, having fun, and not having to care about anything else in our young lives. My heart goes out to your wonderful family in this trying time.

“ I was fortunate to get to know Scott while attending PMHNP school. He was a wonderful study buddy! He was smart and funny, just a neat person! He held such great dreams for his life and he wanted to make the world a better place. I admired his dedication to helping others and to our nursing profession. Scott will be missed by so many! My deepest condolences to his family.

“ My thoughts are with all of Scott's family and friends during this painful time. I was truly blessed to be friends with Scott during my years in Kearney. I have so many wonderful memories of him. He is the first person I remember laughing out loud and appreciating my sarcastic sense of humor. He was an awesome friend and will be greatly missed.
