Sharon Lee Brothers was born on April 10, 1942 in Kimball, Nebraska to Floyd W. and Hilda V. (Pieron) Brothers. She grew up in Dix, Nebraska and graduated from Dix High School in 1959. She then attended college in Colorado before returning to Dix where she worked as a dental hygienist.

She was united in marriage to Ralph R. Anderson on September 20, 1970 in Dix. The couple made their home in Dix until moving to Genoa in 1974 and then Kearney in 1984. When their youngest child began kindergarten Sharon began working as a cook at Stone Elementary. She retired from the school after nearly 20 years. Mr. Anderson preceded her in death on August 30, 2016.

Sharon was a member of Kearney E-Free Church where she was active in Sonrise Bible Study. Throughout her life faith has been steadfast and true. Even while both she and Ralph battled cancer, Sharon kept faith and trust in God's plan, knowing that Christ would renew her body. She lived life with a servant heart and loved God and all of God's people.

In retirement Sharon was active with the international students at the University of Nebraska at Kearney. She loved helping in any way possible to make these students feel safe and at home in Kearney. Sharon was a wonderful cook and always looked forward to making holiday gatherings special. Most of all she loved spending time with her family, especially her grandchildren.

Sharon is survived by her two daughters, Debra Gloates and husband Steve of Pennsylvania and Megan Blazek and husband Nathan of Lincoln; a daughter-in-law, DeAnne Anderson of Lincoln; nine grandchildren, Cory Anderson, Briana Bartek and husband Nate, Joshua, Rachel, Ruth and Rebekah Gloates, and Madelyn, Presley and Rowan Blazek; four sisters-in-law, Sharon Brothers of Wyoming; Nancy Obermeyer of Milford, Harriet Maser and husband David of Sutton and Gail Fischer and husband Chris of California; a brother -in-law, Ike Anderson and wife Dorothy of Genoa; and many nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, a son, Scott Anderson; a grandson, Zachary Scott Anderson; a brother, Wes Brothers; and a sister Kathryn Killham.

“ So sorry for your loss, I enjoyed getting to know Sharon at church. Will be praying for you and your family. God will comfort you in this time to bring you peace. Like Pastor Brian said, she did have a special glow.

“ Dear girls, I was in Bible study with your mother for years. She was such a lovely person and I enjoyed her sweetness. She took great care of your dad--what a great team they made! Megan, I remember when you were born. You were a sweetie if there ever was one. They were proud of you both. Love and peace to you as you adjust to your lives with both parents in the next dimension. Keep the faith! In Christ, Linda Mercer, Gibbon, NE
