Stanley Elwood Lawver was born May 14, 1926 in Decatur County, Kansas to Earl and Esta (Brown) Lawver. He grew up in and received his education in Oberlin, Kansas. Following the end of World War II he moved to McCook, Nebraska.

He was united in marriage to Oma Elizabeth Williams on June 23, 1948 in Oberlin, KS. The couple made their home in McCook and Kearney where Stan was a self-employed painter. Early in his career Stan painted with his brother Don, and they were affectionately known as the "singing painters".

Stan was a member of New Life Assembly of God Church. He enjoyed tinkering on cars, working on projects around the house, watching RFD Television and was an avid fan of professional wrestling. He also loved to playing the guitar, the harmonica and singing. Most of all, Stan loved being a devoted husband, father and grandfather.

He is survived by a daughter, Joy Lee Curfman and husband Jim of Kearney; a son, Stan Lawver and wife Jan of rural Franklin County; 15 grandchildren; 43 great grandchildren; 13 great great grandchildren; and a sister, Mara Johnson of Manhattan, KS.

Stan was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Oma; a son, Timothy Paul Lawver; a great grandson, Blake Teel; two brothers, Earl and Donald Lawver; and two sisters, Betty Dugger and Leora Mockery.
