“ Marni, McCrae, and Maggie, sorry to only be reaching out now. I hope you can all rest easy knowing you will see Steve again and what seems like a separation will only be for a limited time. I have nothing but fond memories hanging out with your family as you took care of me after school. Marni, you and Steve were very instrumental in helping me out with some of my mission work and I appreciate that greatly, but what I think of the most when I think of your family is how I felt like I was a part of it and your house felt like another home for me. Marni I still think about some of your snacks 35 years later :) Sending all my love.

“ I'm so sorry this has happened. You are all in my prayers. I've know Steve since high school as we hunted together a few times back then. He was that guy that you always talked to when you saw him because he made you feel better. Just a great all around guy. I miss him already.

“ Marni and family,

Sending so many prayers for you now. Growing up with Steve, I have so many memories. He was another big brother to us. We went to school and church together and saw each other most days. Since I was the only neighborhood girl, I only joined in the games if it was hide and go seek. I don't think I ever won but, it was the least violent sport the neighborhood boys would play. For fifteen years we were neighbors and appreciated it. Then we he met Marni, she was his world. So glad you were together all of this time. Thankful I got to share your life and lots of good memories. He will be missed by all. You can be proud of all he accomplished and the legacy that will be carried for generations.

*Hugs for now and I hope to see you in Kearney soon.
