“ IMy sympathy for the passing of your dear mother. It was in the paper Tuesday so was too late to attend the service although I sure would have liked to. She always had alot of spunk and wit and never complained about her condition. We had some good times when she was in Benedict and she was a good friend.

“ Staci, Rob & Angie: Please accept our sympathy at this sad time. We are sorry to hear of your mothers' passing and wishe we could attend the service however helath issues make it impossible. Annita fondly remembers the wonderful friendship she shared with Teresa when they lived and worked in Columbus, Ne. Please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers at this unhappy and difficult time.
