“ Just remember his positivity and sense of humor. Many great lunch hour runs, weekend nights and hallway conversations with Tim. Loved this guy, hadn't talked to him since just after graduation due to 25 years of military career getting in the way. The world is at a loss without his soul, I'll miss him much, and regret not catching up with him. Sincere condolences to his family, he is a great human being.

“ One of my funniest memories of Tim was snow skiing with him his first time. He was bundled up in Carhart going full speed down the bunny hill. He about took out several people on his way down.
