“ We will always remember Tim as a kind, soft-spoken and gentle man. Although Tim only entered our lives five years ago when he married David's sister, Carla, he was very special to us. We are very sad that we only had him with us a short time. May God hold Tim in the palm of His hand and give him everlasting peace.

“ Dear Carla, Rich and I are so sorry for your loss. Tim gave you a new life, security, love, hope and joy. These correlate with the gifts you receive from God as a believer. He alone knows the terrible void in your life and pain in your heart with this major loss of the great love you found with Tim. We pray you will find God's comforting arms upholding you in the days and nights now and ahead. God bless you and your family. Love, Rich and Lee
