“ My memory of Trudy is from the one time that I met her (and her beautiful daughter), I believe in Tulsa, OK. I met Trudy through her sister Shelly. And what do I remember from this meeting? Laughter. Constant laughter. So much that your stomach hurts. I watched two sisters, very much alike, share so much joy, and that joy was contagious. I am stunned at the tragedy of her death. And to all the McKee family, her close friends, co-workers...everyone who knew and loved her, my thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ So sorry to hear on Tuesday of Trudy's passing. I knew Trudy in kindergarten in Elm Creek. She was one of my best friends. I have not talked to her recently but I have always carried around great memories of the first best friend I ever had. Your family is in my thoughts and prayers. How truly blessed I was to have her in my life for such a brief period of time.

“ It still doesn't seem real! I didn't get the pleasure of knowing you nearly long enough but I certainly took for granted the time I had you around. Your memories and infectious laugh will forever be imprinted in my mind! I pray for your family, especially Lil' Trudy as I know she was the light in your life, as you were hers. Love you girl!

Trudy was a great nurse, person and friend. She was full of life and laughter. Her daughter (lil Trudy) was her world. When asking about her daughter her face would light up and her eyes would sparkle. Trudy will missed by many but will never be forgotten.

“ To The Family of Trudy McKee September 21, 2013

I'm representing the Family of Robert Grant and we want you to know that our hearts are broken along with yours over the loss of your loved one Trudy. A lot of our family are scattered throughout the United States and did not have an opportunity to meet Trudy, but what we have learned about her afterwards, it would have been a pleasure to know her. We can imagine what Trudy went through being in relationship with Robert, because some of our family member experienced some of the same attitudes and hostilities that Trudy experienced. But now Trudy is no longer here with you. We are deeply sorry for the unimaginable loss that your family is facing now with the loss of your dear loved one, Trudy McKee. On behalf of my sister, the mother of Robert Grant, we offer our prayers and condolences to your family and especially the daughter of Trudy McKee. There are no words that can be said to repay your loss. But we pray that somehow as the days come and go your pain will be soothed by the Peace of God that passes all understanding. Remember the words of Jesus in John 14:27 "Peace I leave with you, my Peace I give unto you: not as the world gives, give I unto you. Let not your Heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

*Sincerely,
Family of Robert Grant

“ Trudy and I were like gas and fire, explosive when together. So much alike it scared us at times. We had our struggles and let pride come between us. A part of my heart was ripped out when I heard the news. My thoughts and prayers are with her daughter and family. And for others don't let pride stand in the way, tomorrow us never promised. I learned too late and for that Trudy, I am truly sorry.

“ Dear Sharon and family,

I am now living in Omaha and was shocked when I heard about Trudy on TV. I told my wife that I instantly knew who she was. I am very sorry that there are so many bad people in our world today that cause these types of things. Please know that there are a lot of people praying and thinking of you at this time. All of you will be in my daily prayers. Dwight T Jones, MD

“ my memory of Trudy is when my sister married her brother 26 years ago she was very sweet and a little on the shy side and a very smart young lady. I know the days ahead will be very sorrowful and painful I will keep each and everyone of you in my thoughts and prayers. I know it will be hard but try your best to believe that she is now in a better place full of beauty and love and happiness. she is also joined with her loved ones that were once here on earth with her they are united in heaven and she is smiling and happy with her daddy holding her. may god bless each and everyone that is left behind put your trust in god and he will see you thru this difficult time.
