“ Jean, Sandra and Barbara, words can't express how deeply saddened dad and I are to hear of Bill's passing. He was a very special person. Not only to you, but to all of the families that resided on West Elm for so many years. I'll always remember him pulling up in the driveway in his white van and painters suit every day after he got off work, and waving to all of us kids from across the street. Always with his cigar in his hand. Please know that you are all in my thoughts and dreams!
