“ Yvonne was indeed an active member of Kearney Newcomers, which is where I met her. She sometimes got my parents' mail by mistake and was so kind to check in with me regularly when my mom was failing. She has even checked in here with me now that we have moved to the Kansas City area. I know she loved that little dog, so I love the picture of her.

“ I first knew Yvonne when she attended the Methodist Church in Doniphan. She was very social and liked to be involved in everything. When I moved back to Doniphan she went out of her way to make friends with me. She called frequently and came to visit. I will always remember that.
